BIOFACH E-JOURNAL

Your go-to knowledge hub!

This is the ultimate industry platform that offers expert insights and in-depth articles, serving as India's leading resource for the Organic, Natural, and Millets Industry. It's an essential guide for staying ahead in the field!

“BIOFACH INDIA, jointly organized by NuernbergMesse India and APEDA, stands out for bringing the entire organic value chain together in one place. Every booth is alive with business and serious buyers. With our Honourable Prime Minister’s vision of India becoming the organic basket of the world, platforms like this play a vital role by connecting farmers, producers, suppliers, and buyers while also highlighting new policies and market trends that shape the sector.

We now look forward to BIOFACH GERMANY next year, where India will be the ‘Country of The Year’ - a strong acknowledgment of the global confidence in Indian organic produce.”

Smt. Kesang Yangzom Sherpa,
Joint Secretary, Ministry of Commerce and Industry,
Government of India, Gol

"We have been participating at BIOFACH INDIA for the past four years, ever since we entered the organic segment. This is the one-stop platform for the entire organic ecosystem. You'll find farmers, FPOs, processors, B2B traders, certification bodies, retailers, and companies like us—you find it all here!"

Nimit Doshi, Amul Organic

"We are happy to be here because this exhibition truly brings the organic community together and helps promote the sector. This year, we're seeing many new companies as well, which shows the growing interest in organic in India. Our mission has always been to promote organic - within India and for exports, so the more people who get involved, the more organic farming grows. That, in turn, improves product quality and increases business opportunities. It's a very good sign, and we are pleasantly surprised."

N. Balasubramanian, 24 Mantra Organic

"This is my 17th consecutive participation at BIOFACH INDIA, and like every year, we've been very busy. We are now in retail and franchise as well, and visitors have shown strong interest in this new segment. It clearly shows how keen and responsive the audience is. Every year, these three days feel like home to me — you could say this is my Organic Business Home."

Tapan Ray, Pratithi Organic Foods

"BIOFACH INDIA has always been a key platform for us, supporting our organic journey from the very beginning. Today, as we export to more than 22 countries and hold both organic and regenerative certifications across essential oils, spices, rice, jaggery and more, it reflects the growing trust the global market has in Indian organic produce. We also began participating in BIOFACH Germany last year, strengthening our presence internationally."

Prarit Bhardwaj, Pavitramenthe

"We are an early-stage social enterprise, and it's been very good here at BFI 2025. We've gotten the opportunity to interact with various businesses, and especially people from international markets like the UK, UAE, Germany, etc. So that way, it's been very exciting for us!"

Rishabh Lohia, Wild Harvest

"We are having a very good experience here, especially with so many visitors coming in and a lot of meaningful queries. We're happy to connect them with the exporters present. BIOFACH INDIA is exciting and full of opportunities, and I encourage everyone to participate in this fair."
