"BIOFACH INDIA serves as the flagship event for India's organic production and exports. Now in its 16th edition, we have witnessed tremendous growth in the profile of organic exporters, with several well-established global brands emerging from India. The country now boasts a robust organic supply chain, and the exhibition provides a vital platform for more organic food producers to gain exposure. This event will greatly benefit them as it highlights the vast opportunities the global organic market offers to India."

Shri. Rajesh Agrawal IAS, Additional Secretary, Department of Commerce, Government of India

"Indian organic products hold immense potential to capture a larger share of the international market owing to India's vast agricultural diversity, growing consumer demand for organic food products coupled with growing awareness about health. We aim to educate and raise awareness about the benefits of these practices, not only for our health but also for the environment and our local communities."
